Tradition -

JOHN J. DOYLE
Latin Head Master

Today marks the 75th annual grid-iron meeting of the friendly Fenway rivals. This game, certainly an integral part of Boston's renowned past, needs no introduction to the connoisseur of inter-scholastic athletics. The years have produced many irreproachable teams, and at least as many incomparable contests. Sixty years ago, this Thanksgiving, was fought one of the most splendid, high school football contests of all time. At the South End

Grounds, before more than 4000 spectators, Latin (in a spirited battle), much heavier than English, downed its inter-scholastic rival by the very close score 6 - 5.

How familiar and yet how different was that day — three generations ago! Mother, preparing for the holiday feasting, could purchase sirloin roasts at 17¢ a pound, or three pounds of the best hamburger for a quarter, or five pounds of real mincemeat for - - -, but why go on, those golden days are beyond recall, at least financially. How proud we may be today, on the other hand, to participate in such an occasion as the annual English - Latin game, an event possessing such honest American tradition.

November 23, 1961

Even as long as 60 years ago, the game had become a school-boy tradition. A veteran sports reporter referred to the game as "the hardest, fiercest football of the year." In spite of the fierce competition on the field, at the close of the contest, both the players and the spectators were seen to congratulate each other on the fine play and splendid sportsmanship, irrespective of team loyalties. This clearly demonstrates that over the years the most outstanding feature of these grid-iron classics has been the remarkable sportsmanlike conduct of both fine schools on the field and in the stands.

The Harvard Stadium, a scene of many thrilling athletic contests provides the proper Ivy setting for this only truly Ivy schoolboy game. Today Ed Lambert brings a superbly coached Latin Eleven to meet the rugged, speedy "Blue and Blue" squad coached by Bill Stewart, now in his 14th year as head coach at English. The game can result only in the triumph of one fine team over another. But regardless of the result, both teams will sit down to Thanksgiving dinner, after the contest, in the firm assurance that a fine tradition has been honorably perpetuated.

A Tribute

It is both fitting and proper that a tribute of praise should be paid at this time to one of the distinguished sons of English High School — one whose long and brilliant life is worthy of emulation.

Melville E. Webb, Jr.—better known as Mel Webb—scion of a prominent Boston physician, became a man of “honor and achievement.”

On October 23, 1961 he entered the Hall of Perpetual Memory of the alumni of the Boston English High School.

Member of the Class of 1895, he distinguished himself as a Captain in the School Regiment, and as an elocutionist without peer.

In his chosen career—a sports writer—which he entered at 18, Mel became the friend advisor and confidant of the great coaches and players in football and baseball—Percy Haughton and “Babe” Ruth, for example.

Dean of the sports writers and a charter member of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, Mel's rare ability as a raconteur made him a much sought after post-prandial speaker. Keen of wit, clear, concise in writing, in comment, frank and honest, he called the shots as he saw them.

His by-line was known to every sportswriter and reader from coast to coast. Respected and honored by his fellow sportswriters for his fifty years of service to the world of sport, Mel Webb, sportswriter, raconteur, humorist, elocutionist, lover of his fellow man (and therefore, a lover of Man's Creator), will live in the hearts of his classmates and fellow sportswriters forever.

Glancing at the Record

SIXTY YEARS AGO

15th Game of the Series

1901—South End Grounds . . . BLS 6 EHS 5 . . . Two strong teams faced one another on this raw cloudy day, the temperature being 24° at 8:30 A.M. and 14° at game time. This game was the first time that John D. O'Reilly was the EHS coach, while Charles Kiley was the coach for BLS. There was no scoring in the first half and most all of the playing in midfield. Early in the second half, Captain Tom Connelly of E.H.S., with fine blocking by Burns and Manahan, ran 25 yds. for a touchdown, but Kennedy missed the point after. This was the second year that Connelly had scored a touchdown against BLS. On the kickoff, Somes ran the ball to mid-field. Tom Mahony, Louis Freedman, Gene Sullivan, and Dana Somes suddenly got "hot" and the ball rested on the 4 yd. line. Paul Edwards and Frank Littlefield opened up a wide hole and Captain Ed Witherby scored the tying touchdown. Gene Sullivan scored the point after, and BLS was City Champion again. In addition to players mentioned above, Cleo O'Donnell, Ownie McCusker, Bill Hanley played well for Latin while Kennedy, Clapp, Woodbury and Bill Sullivan excelled for English. The lineup for BLS was Tucker and McCusker LE, O'Donnell LT, Edwards LG, Littlefield C, Capt. Witherby RG, Mohan RT, Freedman and Ben-shimol RE, Tom Mahony QB, Somes and Freedman LHB, E. Sullivan RHB, Hanley and Tucker FB. The subs who did not get into the game were Charles French, Galvin, L. C. Corbett, Roche, and White. English presented W. Sullivan and Clarke RE, Woodbury and Hatton RT, McCormick RG, Wilkinson C, Collins LG, Weiner LT, Clapp LE, Kennedy QB, Burns, RHB, Santry and Manahan LHB, Capt. Tom Connelly FB.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

25th Game of Series

1911—Fenway Park . . . BLS 0 EHS 0 . . . Clear 35° day—soft field—attendance 7,000. This was the fifth time that the game of the year had resulted in a tie, the third scoreless tie. King, the BLS halfback played a spectacular game, but this was offset by many fumbles, especially by BLS. These teams were evenly matched and getting the ball inside the twenty-yard line was impossible for each. Was very interesting game for spectators as a great display of defensive football was shown by English and Latin.

Line-up for BLS was Tom Craven and Paul Duff LE, McCarthy LT, Colby LG, Soucy C, Daley, Berman and Dukeshire RG, Capt. Austin Tate RT, Weschkolofsky and Saladine RE, Greene and Doherty QB, R. S. C. King LHB, Boles and Craven RHB, and Max Gersumky FB. The opening EHS team had Shuttleworth RE, Murphy RT, Goodman and Bradley RG, Cohen C, Casey LG, Ignico LT, Maginnes and Meade LE, Capt. Joe Dolan QB, Pendleton, and Ashley RHB, McPherson LHB, and Barnard FB. Ignico and Maginnes excelled for English.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

50th Game of the Series

BLS 13—EHS 0

1936—National League Field . . . Muddy—34° . . . Attendance 20,000. First game of double-header. This was to be the fifteenth game under Coach Charley FitzGerald, the record to date as far as Charley was concerned was EHS 7 victories, BLS 6 victories and one tie. Just before the game Capt. Gorman told his right guard, Plackter that he was only on the team because of his size. He was a "sissy" etc. This made Plackter angry and he tore through the English line, blocked a kick and fell on the ball behind the goal line for a touchdown. Crowley, Dacey, Plackter, and Gavin excelled for Latin, while Capt. Daly, Costello, Cuddy, and Sullivan shone for the Blue. BLS lineup was Crowley, Dempsey, McGrath LE, Buckley and Hoar LT, Dacey, Ajaskas and Garveny LG, Lambert and Flanagan C, Plackter, Higgins and Krajewski, Garvey RG, Wallace and Gavin RT, Beatty, Kaufman and J. Sullivan RE, Keyes and W. Murphy OB, Bjorklund, Burke and Martin LHB, Capt. Gorman, Cummings and J. Murphy RHB, Walsh and Radley FB. Coach Ohrenberger had Halloran, Malone and McGinn RE, Capt. Daly, P. Reddy and Ruiney RT, Costello, Dominico and McLaughlin RG, E. Reddy, Hickey, and Zaborski C, O'Brien, Bianchi and Ostro, LG, Gallagher, Manning and Bonantonio, LT, Barry, W. W. (Pep) McCarthy and Powers LE, Cuddy, Stewart, and Antoniowicz QB, Sullivan, Melaugh and Orth RHB, Williams, Gallivan, and A. O'Brien LHB, Cowhig, Rizzo, Burns and Scribner FB.

55th Game of the Series

BLS 19—EHS 0

1941—Braves Field . . . Very bright but warm day . . . 71° . . . Attendance 20,000. First game of double-header Latin was expected to win—up to the start of this game FitzGerald coached teams won 4 games, lost 3, and tied 2 with Ohrenberger coached clubs. After the game had ended Fitzie's record against Ohrenberger was 5 to 3 while Latin School and English had beaten each other 22 times, with 11 ties. McDermott, Slattery, Dunn and T. Sullivan for Latin and Foley, O'Malley and L. Sullivan excelled for English. The lineup BLS—McDermott and Connolly LE, Tarushka, Coshnear and Histon LT, Powers, Monroe, Murmes LG, Slattery, Gould, McEtrick, Peters C, Noonan, Vezina, Flynn, Stapleton, RG, P. F. Murphy, Gill, Murdock RT, Dunn, Burns, and Lee RE, A. Kelly (Co-Capt.), Gallagher and Greeley OB, Brosnahan, P. Kelly and Daley LHB, T. Sullivan, Co-Capt., P. H. 60th Game of the Series

EHS 19—BLS

1946—Harvard Stadium . . . Clear, ideal day 31° . . . Attendance 22,000 . . . highest of any school game of the day. EHS favored to win by 4 touchdowns. More blue skies for English. Latin School still looking for first win at Harvard Stadium. Game was televised. BLS was outplayed in every minute in the first half while EHS scored once in the first period and twice in the second, Tsavaris, DellOrphano and Balfour making the touchdowns and Tuhna one conversion. In losing this game, EHS has won 25 to Latin's 22 and there have been 13 tie games, 10 of them scoreless. The lineups: EHS Co-Capt. Tsavaris, Riggs, Ballard and Griffin LE, Ciampa, McCarthy and Ciccarelli, LT, Zanghe, Geanacopoulos LG, Limoncelli, Driscoll, Rossi, Wong C, Giordano, Potter and Lesser RG, Fatalo, Conrad, Keefe and Savino RT, Shawlis, Shannon, Pascucci and Barrett RE, DellOrfano, Pendergast QB, Brosnahan, Luciano and Jennings LHB, Balerno, Co-Capt. 65th Game of the Series

EHS 20 — BLS 0

1951 — Fair Day . . . 47° . . . Attendance 12,000. Game televised. All starting players before actual kickoff shook hands with their opponents. Game was cleanly played but frequent fumbles. Latin with practically no quarterback. Latin School outplayed in all departments, making only 3 first downs, gaining only 17 yards on the ground and 11 yards on passes. With this loss the series record stands with 28 wins, for EHS to 24 wins for BLS with 13 ties. The lineups — EHS — Hill, Connell, MacPhadden LE, S. McCabe, Stuart, Appelbaum, Aronson LT, Bean, MacCormack, Angelopoulos, Forman LG, Coviello, Terry, Joyce, O'Brien C, Gautreau, Doherty, Adams, McCarthy RG, Coughlin, Krozy, G. Barberisi, P. #### FIVE YEARS AGO

70th Game of Series

BLS 19 — EHS 12

1956 — Boston University Field . . . Sunny but Muddy . . . 47° . . . Attendance 15,000. For three periods this game was very close and appeared to be a fourteenth tie in the making, the score being 12 to 12. BLS scored first on a forward pass Corvi to Crosson in the first period. In the second period English tied the score when Mullins scored from the one-yard marker. In the third period EHS scored on a pass from Donovan to Mullins which the latter carried the ball 50 yards. After the next kickoff, Latin worked the ball to the 45-yard line and then Corvi threw his second touchdown pass to Crosson. There was no more scoring until a few seconds before the game ended, when Corvi threw a third touchdown pass to Crosson and then Corvi added the extra point via a placement kick.

The lineup — BLS, Powers and Kirk LE, Laird, Basile, Sneider LT, Higgins and Zissis LG, Kelley and Burke C, Co-Capt. McCool and Slovin RG, Reilly and Haynes RT, Swepson, Rosenthal and Blase RE, Corvi and Lauria QB, Deyesso and Breen LHB, F. Crosson and Greene RHB, Co-Capt. Johnson and George FB.

LAST YEAR

74th Game of the Series

BLS 20 — EHS 16

1960 — Harvard Stadium . . . 41° . . . Attendance 22,000. Cloudy. In a game which provided many thrills by fast running and dodging backs, Latin School came from behind and, for the first time in 36 years, has a lead of one in this old series. The standing is now 31 victories for BLS, 30 for English. There have been 13 tie games, ten of them scoreless. In the first period there was no scoring, although many fine gains were made. In the first play of the second period Sinkus ran 25 yards and on the next play Joe Ryan passed to Tom Kelly for the first score. The conversion was good for two points, Ryan to Costello, EHS leading 8 to 0. After the kickoff BLS had the ball on its 32-yard stripe. At this point Bob Walsh hit Caporale with a long pass and Caporale travelled 40-yards for the first BLS score. Thomson rushed for 2 conversion points and the score was tied at 8 each. About five minutes later English was forced to punt. This punt, a short one, was caught by Captain Paul Barringer near the 30-yard BLS line. Paul shook off one opponent and ran the rest of the distance, behind good blocking, for the touchdown. At the end of the half BLS was leading 14 to 8. In the third quarter BLS rushed the ball to the one-yard line and made four attempts to go through the line for a score and failed, three of the stops being made by Mike Adessa. English took over and punted poorly. Ed Bell ran the punt back 25 yards to the 2-yard line. Then Larry Thomson plunged through for the touchdown, making the score, 20 to 8. In the final period EHS received the kickoff on the 18. After gaining on several rushes Ryan pitched to Dick Lane for 18-yard gain. Then Bob Cofield ran 37 yards, being apparently stopped twice by tacklers, for the touchdown. Joe Ryan passed to Costello for the two conversion points, making the score 20-16. English was still threatening, making two attempts for a pass each time being intercepted by Joe Barrett, the last one as the game ended. Latin School had won its third straight, although the officiating could have been better. The opinions on these reports are personal, as the writer has seen all of these games since 1896.
